Original Campaign Songs.

SHOUT FOR DOUGLAS, SHOUT

BY THE AUTHOR OF THE "DRUM SONG."

AIR—DEAREST MAY.

From every hill and valley comes the voice for Douglas strong;
Like the heaving waves of ocean swells the Democratic song;
His name is heard in every State, from centre to the shore—
It mingles with the mountain winds, and drowns the oceans' roar.

CHORUS:
Then shout for Douglas, shout,
For all his foes he'll rout—
He'll beat the Black Republicans,
And drive the traitors out.

Upon the Constitution's rock, undaunted still he stands,
To drive the black disunionists back to their native strands;
He met them in the field, and on the Senate floor—
Before him there his foes gave way—they soon will rise no more.
Shout for Douglas, &c.

His star is blazing in the West above the mountain's height;
Its light is spreading in the East, till all the sky
grows bright;
Then rally round your country's flag, ye gallant
men, and true,
By standing to a candidate, whose course you'll never rue.
Shout for Douglas, &c.

Once more your country calls you forth, to save her from her foes,
Then rise on every mountain side, where patriotism glows;
And kindle there your beacon lights, for freedom
and the right,
And, though your foes in storms assail, yet God will give you might.
Then shout for Douglas, shout,
For all his foes he'll rout—
He'll beat the Black Republicans,
And drive the traitors out.

BOBBIN' ABE.

BY HOOXIE.

O, there lives a man in the Sucker State,
Bobbin' round, round and round;
He's an ugly cuss and of statute great,
As he goes bobbin' round.
This man wants to be President,
Bobbin' round, round and roused,
But to Washington he won't be sent,
But must go bobbin' round.

Now this his party much bewails,
Bobbin' round, round and round,
For they say he's good at splitting rails
And good at bobbin' round.
He's split enough all dried and fine,
Bobbin' round, round and round,
To fence off Mason and Dixon's line
And keep him bobbin' round.

He'll get no votes on the other side,
Bobbin' round, round and round,
For on a rail they will him ride,
And send him bobbin' round.
Old Lincoln has a motley crew
Bobbin' round, round and round,
And Seward, Greeley, they'll just do
To keep him bobbin' round.

There is a man called STEPHEN A.,
Bobbin' round, round and round.
And he will surely win the day,
As he goes bobbin' round.
That the "Giant of the West" will be,
Bobbin' round, round and round,
Our President—now all agree,
As they go bobbin' round.

And the Lincolnites will go up stream,
Bobbin' round, round and round,
Since helped along by HELPER'S team,
To keep them bobbin' round.
And there they'll live on frogs and snails
Bobbin' round, round and round,
And "Honest Abe" will split more rails,
As he goes bobbin' round.

Hark! the Bells are ringing,
And the breeze is bringing,
Sounds of Lincoln's rails a breaking,
And the Brecks a noise are making
Of their candidate.
But the shout that drowns them all,
And comes from the mighty throng,
That will rend Disunion's wall,
And will make all Yanceys fall,
Is for STEVE the GREAT.
Hark! the chorus reads the sky,
And is sounded low and high,
DOUGLAS, JOHNSON, is the cry,
That's heard from every State.

GEN. JACKSON AND JUDGE DOUGLAS.

AN INTERESTING INCIDENT.

In December, 1843, Judge Douglas made his first appearance in Congress. For several years preceding, there had been a struggle over a bill proposing to refund to Gen. Jackson the fine of $1,000 imposed upon him by Judge Hall at New Orleans, during the defence of that city.—Some of the best minds in Congress had considered the question and it had been, as was thought, thoroughly discussed. The bill had never become a law. It was contended by the old Hero's enemies that his declaration of martial law was a violation of the Constitution; his friends whilst not denying this, excused it on the ground of necessity. The friends of the bill supported it as a measure of gratitude—a boon due by a grateful country to her patriotic and successful defender. On this ground it was mainly supported. On the 7th of January, Judge Douglas obtained the floor. He was then unknown to Congress. His was a new face and his was a strange voice in those halls. He did not follow the beaten path in his advocacy of the bill. He at once took high and strong ground in defence of Gen. Jackson's conduct. He denied the legality of Judge Hall's judgment. This position was a bold one; the speaker attracted attention; and as he warmed with his subject, he soon obtained the ear of the house. His speech was a success. It established his character as a lawyer and as a debater. From that time to the present day he has never been compelled to address empty benches or an impatient, inattentive audience. The bill passed the House and subsequently the Senate. After the adjourn ment of Congress, Messrs. Polk and Clay having been nominated for the Presidency amonster Democratic Convention was held at Nashville, Tennessee, to which delegations and distinguished men from all the western States, were invited. A large delegation from Illinois, including Mr. Douglas, went to Nashville. The attendance was immense. The accounts described it as a monster gathering; forty acres were scarcely able to afford standing room for the vast assemblage of men and women. Some of the most brilliant orators of the day were there and for several days addressed the multitude. Many had come from a great distance, not only to attend the Convention, but also to see that great man, who had for so long a period and so prominently occupied the hearts of his countrymen. They could not leave, without the long wished for pleasure of seeing Andrew Jackson. The moment the speaking had closed the immense throng turned their steps towards the Hermitage. A witness says, "I remember well the appearance of the vast procession—the countless multitude, as it came surging down the main road leading to the home of Jackson. As the people entered the avenue leading from the high road, to the plain but copious dwelling, the old patriot, though feeble from age, roused himself once more to receive the sincere and unbought homage of his grateful and confiding countrymen. He took a seat on a sofa in a large hall opposite to the porch and entrance. The multitude filled every standing point in front of the mansion. Affectionate friends surrounded him; the throng asked but the privilege of seeing and taking him by the hand once more.—They approached in files, shook hands with him and then passed on through the hall. Thousands passed thus before the old hero—at last our friend Judge Douglas, of Illinois, approached. I remember well how pale he looked, and how small and plain he seemed beside the hundreds of robust and gallant specimens of Tennessee manhood. Governor Clement C. Clay, of Alabama, a Senator of the United States, had been for some time acting as the medium of introduction to strangers. The scene that ensued was one never to be forgotten.

One of the Illinois delegation who accompanied Judge Douglas, was Wm. Walters, Esq., editor of the Illinois State Register, the most influential as well as the ablest conducted paper in the state. Mr. Walters was with Judge Douglas, at the moment of his introduction to Gen. Jackson, and on his return to Springfield, a few days thereafter, he published the following description of what took place:

"Everything that relates to Andrew Jackson, the Hero of New Orleans and the friend of his country, is of deep interest to the American people; and although the incident we are about to relate is in itself of no great interest, it becomes so to us, in consequence of those connected with it. At the Nashville Convention, in August last, we visited the Hermitage, only twelve miles distant, in company with Judge Douglas and some others of our fellow-citizens. The Hermitage was crowded with people from almost every State, who had been invited thither by the venerable patriot on the day succeeding the Convention. Gov. Clay of Alabama, was near General Jackson, who was himself sitting on a sofa in the hall, and as each person entered, the Governor introduced him to the hero and he passed along. When Judge Douglas was thus introduced, General Jackson raised his still brilliant eyes and gazed for a moment on the countenance of the Judge, still retaining his hand.

"Are you the Mr. Douglas, of Illinois, who delivered a speech last session, on the subject of the fine imposed on me, for declaring martial law, at New Orleans?" asked General Jackson.

"I have delivered a speech in the house of Representatives, upon that subject," was the modest reply of our friend.

"Then stop," said General Jackson; "sit down here beside me. I desire to return my thanks for that speech. You are the first man that has ever relieved my mind on a subject that has rested upon it for thirty years. My enemies have always charged me with violating the Constitution of my country, by declaring martial law at New Orleans, and my friends have always admitted the violation, but contended the circumstances justified me in that violation I never could understand how it was, that the performance of a solemn duty to my country—a duty, which if I had neglected, would have made me a traitor in the sight of God and man, could properly be pronounced a violation of the Constitution. I felt convinced in my own mind that I was not guilty of such a heinous offence; but I could never make out a legal justification of my course, nor has it ever been done, sir, until you, on the floor of Congress, at the late session, established it beyond a possibility of a cavil or doubt. I thank you, sir, for that speech.—It has relieved my mind from the only circumstance that rested paintully upon it. Throughout my whole life I never performed an official act which I viewed as a violation of the Constitution of my country, and I can now go down to the grave in peace, with the perfect consciousness, that I have not broken, at any period of my life, the Constitution or laws of my country."

Thus spoke the old hero, his countenance brightened by emotions which it is impossible for us to describe. We turned to look at Douglas—he was speechless. He could not reply, hand, he rose and left the hall. Certainly, General Jackson had paid him the highest compliment he could have bestowed on any individual.

It has been publicly stated, and we know of no reason for questioning the statement, that General Jackson, at his death, bequeathed all his papers to Francis P. Blair, the editor of the Washington Globe, and that among them was found the pamphlet copy of Judge Douglas's speech, with an endorsement in Jackson's own handwriting signed by him, in these words—"This speech constitutes my defence; I lay it aside as an inheritance for my grandchildren."

It is doubtful whether, in the long and eventful public life of Judge Douglas, there has ever been a moment when words of applause and approbation have ever sounded so pleasantly in his ears, as those thrilling sentences of the venerable hero, General Jackson.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

It is certainly a gratifying fact that amidst the differences of opinion among Democrats upon the Presidential question, and the difficulties surrounding it, all interests in the party unite heartily in support of H. D. Foster our nominee for Governor. His nomination was made without effort on his part; in fact, he was not a candidate for the office. It was a free-will offering of his party—a tribute to the character and integrity of the man. At the very mention of his name the voice of faction, as well as of personal interests and ambition, was hushed, and then like the storm that succeeds the calm, with one universal shout he was proclaimed the nominee.

Mr. Foster is a good man. By his industry, his unbending integrity—his devotion to the duties of an honorable profession and entire freedom from anything like the trade of politics—his manly adherence to the principles of his party because of conviction and not for the purpose of official position, as evidenced by the conduct of his whole life, he has gathered to himself the confidence of the people: a confidence as solid and unwavering as his own character is spotless and deserving.

It cannot be disguised, for public sentiment, upon the gubernatoritorial question has become patent all over the State, that to-day the hopes not merely of his own party, but of the sober, intelligent, conservative people of Pennsylvania, are centred on Mr. Foster as the proper man for the Executive Chair in preference to his opponent, Mr. Curtin. All, or nearly all of that class which Daniel Webster denominated "the solid men of Boston,"—those men interested in, and who control the great commercial and monetary interests of the Commonwealth and who more generally in the past have voted with the opposition, infinitely prefer Mr. Foster, and are ready to give him their votes. The reason of this we have given in describing the character of the man, to wit, that he is not an office-seeker, or a mere politician, but a man who has built up that solid character that imparts confidence in his integrity and conservatism. These great interests always desire stability in the government—they dread change, innovation and experiments—and hence they naturally dread the accession of a mere politician to executive position. This whole interest is for Foster, and will be felt in the election as a tremendous power. Indeed, it may likely decide the contest, if the Democratic party as a partizan organization, does its duty, and polls a full party vote.

Mr. Curtin is a very different man from Mr. Foster. He was pitch-forked into public notoriety, like many others of his class of men, by the Know Nothing organization of 1854, and became the Secretary of the Commonwealth under the administration of Governor Pollock,—an administration that is remembered in Pennsylvania only for its imbecility and corruption. Mr. Curtin was the banker of that administration,—offices were bought and sold, vetoes were in market at stipulated prices, or a favorable consideration of bills purchased in accordance with the proportions of the scheme and the abilities of the parties to pay. So shamelessly was this carried on that it became a subject of public notoriety at Harrisburg—so common indeed, as finally to attract little remark. Mr. Curtin is a man of considerable polish of address—plausible and insinuating in social intercourse, ambitious of political preferment and unscrupulous in its attainment. As a Know Nothing, he was at the very head of the order and learnedly skilled in its mysteries and secrets; but as that became unpopular, he gradually slid from his position, coming out first as an open American, throwing off the disguise of secrecy,—then a member of "the people's party," an amalgamation of Americans and Republicans, and finally turned up at Chicago, when Lincoln was nominated, as the advocate of a plank in the platform repudiating the whole doctrine of the Know Nothing or American party. As banker of Pollock's administration, he became rich. As a lawyer, he is unknown to fame in his pro- severe mental discipline that laborious study ardent devotion to this profession always imparts. He is essentially a politician, thrown upon the surface, as a prominent man, by mere accident, and sustaining himself in his position by the usual resorts and appliances of a mere politician of the present. This is all there is of Mr. Curtin, and independent of the character of Mr. Foster, is of itself a reason why the commercial interests of the State look upon him with distrust, and why the conservative element of the opposition will not support him at the polls.

This being the position of the contest, and we believe it to be so, it behooves every Democrat to go to work at once, and ardently. Mr. Foster can be elected,—the character of the State may be maintained,—the recurrence of Pollock's administration may be averted, and this a sufficient reason—should be a sufficient incentive, for us all to labor with untiring zeal and un flagging energy, till Henry D. Foster shall be declared the Governor of Pennsylvania by the votes of her people.—Wilkesbarre Union.

HENRY D. FOSTER.

In the midst of all our political troubles we are rejoiced to find a determination on the part of the Democracy to achieve at least one great victory this year. The masses of the people all over the State are becoming fully impressed with the excellences of the Gubernatorial standard bearer of the Democracy, HENRY D. FOSTER, and are gathering enthusiastically to his support. Mr. CURTIN, the candidate of the opposition, has been congratulating himself for some time past that in the coming contest he will have everything his own way—indeed that his election is an inevitable and certain event. In this assumed security he will find himself egregiously mistaken. The people of Pennsylvania recognize in HENRY D. FOSTER one of the most eminent and useful public men within her boundaries. A man of unimpeachable integrity, a high toned generous nature, and the possessor of high intellectual gifts amply qualifying him for the most honorable public position to which the people can elevate him. Mr. FOSTER, unlike "Merry Andrew" can produce an untarnished public record. Suspicion even, conscious of its weakness, finds no word against the purity of his character, and the high controlling integrity which marks each and every act of his political life. Such a man as HENRY D. FOSTER the people should, and will, delight to honor. In the hands of such a man the duties of the Gubernatorial chair will be administered fearfully and faithfully. He will call no venal and corrupt politicians as his counselors; nor will he attach his name to an act of legislation which does not bear unmistakable marks of protection and advancement of the great interests of the whole people.

Let us therefore prepare earnestly and effectively for the great contest. In every county in the State the Democracy are uniting with unparallelled enthusiasm, determined to bury animosities and divisions, and to give General FOSTER an old fashioned victory. A united Democracy and success is certain. To this end let harmonious action prevail throughout the State. Divisions and dissensions we all know are productive of defeat. Now it is for us to accept of wise counsels, to exercise forbearance, and to unite not for the sake of men, but of principles and victory.—Valley Spirit.

A HANDSOME COMPLIMENT TO MR. DOUGLAS.

In a late speech at Louisville, the Hon. John J. Crittenden, the patriotic and eminent Opposition Senator from Kentucky, paid the following high compliment to Mr. Douglas:

"I know Mr Douglas very well ladies and gentlemen. From Mr. Douglas, personally, I should apprehend no danger. I have never been a Democrat, as you all know. [Applause.] A frank, fair, honest opponent of the Democratic party, I have ever been found acting upon Whig principles from the first to the last. [Increased applause.] But I have known Mr. Douglas in the public councils, and have acted with him. Although generally opposed and especially upon party questions, we have at times acted together, and particularly upon one momentous occasion, when we acted together in opposition to that infamous Lecompton Constitution. [Deafening applause.] Mr. Douglas was there making a great sacrifice to his sense of duty. [Applause.] He was sacrificing his connection, on that occasion, with many old political friends; he was breaking up the relations of a long political life; he was sacrificing as flattering prospects for the highest office of the Government as any man in the country had. I fully believe he did what he conceived to be his duty: and, in defiance of all opposition, the rack of the President, offended friends, and open foes, he acted like a man. [Tremendous cheering.] He might have been mistaken in what he did, but that little diminished the value of the act. He thought he was right, and he knew he was making a sacrifice, and he was capable of making it when he believed the interests of his country demanded it. [Cheers.] I can have no quarrel with him; he is a Union man. [Cheers.] And a Union man I can always trust, when I believe him to be sincere and in earnest, as I believe Douglas to be. [Continued applause.]

A BIT OF ROMANCE.

A SURVIVOR OF THE STEAMSHIP ARCTIC.

The New Orleans Courier has the following story: A gentleman of the Second District of this city was on board of the ill-fated steamer Arctic, when she was lost on the 27th of September, 1854. The sad news reached here that he was among the missing, and cast a gloom in his household, for he had a family—a young and pretty wife and a child. He was well-to-do in the world, and left property sufficient for their maintenance. The young widow mourned her lost husband sincerely, doubtless, but sorrow is not everlasting, and as the long years rolled past, the mourning weeds disappeared, the roses on her cheeks bloomed again, and smiles played on her rosy lips. She was young and pretty, and suitors were not wanting. She married again. Several years of quiet bliss have passed since the day she took a new companion in life, and now suddenly the electric spark of the telegraph, flying with the speed of lightning, has struck the edifice of her happiness—struck at its base, so as to make it totter and crumble. A dispatch from New York, received day before yesterday, announced the arrival of the long lost first husband. Clinging to some piece of the wreck, he had floated to distant shores, where for six long years he lived with the hope of meeting once more the beloved ones he had left at home, but unable to find a homeward bound vessel. We hope to obtain some particulars concerning his Crusoe life, and of the many hardships he must have suffered—all of which dwindle into mere nothingness at the thought of the disappointment that awaits him on his arrival home. The feelings of the twice wedded wife may be better imagined than described.

[From the N. O. Bee, Aug. 9th.]

We understand on reliable authority that the survivor of the Arctic disaster, of whom we spoke on Tuesday, will be in this city this evening. The person is Mr. Fleury, who was well known as having kept the grocery at the corner of Orleans and Robertson streets, where his wife now resides. She married Mr. Fleury's chief clerk, Mr. Weber, and had three children by him. Her two children by Mr. Fleury—a daughter of seventeen and a son of fifteen—are now living with her.

Last Saturday she received the first intimation of the startling news of her husband's return, after an absence of five years and a half, in a letter from him, dated at New York. A lady friend, to whom she showed the letter, reports the substance of it, to be that Fleury, with five other survivors of the Arctic, were picked up from the fragments of the wreck by a whaler, which kept on her long voyage.—This ship was subsequently sunk, and fifteen of those aboard saved themselves upon the island from which they were taken by another whaler, which was just commencing her cruise, and which only returned to New York a week or two ago.

DOUGLAS AND REFORM.

AIR—WE'RE A BAND OF FREEMEN.

Come ye men of every station,
Join with us for reformation,
And for the Union and the nation,
We're for Douglas and reform.
CHORUS—We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're for Douglas and reform.

On the sacred side forever,
We'll sustain "Secession" never,
We'll fight for the Union ever,
We're for Douglas and reform.
CHORUS—We're a band of freemen,
Were a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're for Douglas and reform.

We'll dry up disunion screachers,
Drive out the slave code teachers,
And the abolition preachers,
We're for Douglas and reform.
CHORUS—We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're for Douglas and reform.

The "Little Giant" goes before us,
And the flag of Freedom's o'er us,
We will shout the sounding chorus,
We're for Douglas and reform.
CHORUS—We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're a band of freemen,
We're for Douglas and reform.

THE QUAKER AND THE BULLY.—A genuine bully, called upon a "Friend," avowedly to thrash him.

"Friend," remonstrated the Quaker, knocking aside his visitor's fists, "before thou proceedest to chastise me, wilt thou take some dinner?"

The bully was a glutton, and at once consented, washing down the solids with libations of strong ale. He rose up again to fulfil his original errand.

"Friend," said the Quaker, "wilt thou not first take some punch?" And he supplied abundance of punch.

thrash his entertainer; but, quoth the Quaker—

"Friend, wilt thou not take a pipe?"

This hospitable offer was accepted, and the bully, utterly weak, staggered across the room to chastise the Quaker. The latter, opening the door and pulling him towards it, thus addressed him:

"Friend, thou camest here not to be pacified. I gave thee a meat offering, but that did not assauage thy rage; I gave thee a drink-offering, still thou wert beside thyself; I gave thee a burnt-offering, neither did that suffice; now I will try thee with a heave-offering."

And with that he tossed him out of doors.—That sufficed him.

☞"If I catch yees near my house again, I'll break your neck, ye rascal," said one Irishman to another.

"But you asked me yourself."

"But I didn't ask yees to make love to my wife, you scoundrel."

"I haven't made love to your wife; you are laboring under some mistake."

"Don't tell me thet now; didn't I see you wid my own eyes, trying to come the blarney over her?"

"But I tell you I didn't do any such a thing; I don't care that for your wife," giving his fingers a snap at the words, "nor that."

"Yees don't care for her, hey? She's as good a woman as you are, any day, ye dirty blackguard, and if yees speak disrespectful of her, I'll be after tachin' ye better manners."

☞Some time since a Baltimore ship-owner in getting away a vessel had considerable trouble with one of his men, by the name of Cain or Kane, who got top-heavy on the advance wages. After the vessel had accomplished her voyage on settling with the crew, it came to this man's turn for settlement.

"What name!" asked the merchant.

"Cain, sir," was the reply.

"What!" rejoined the merchant; "are you the man who slew his brother?"

"No, sir," was the ready and witty reply of Jack, with a knowing wink, giving his trowsers a hitch, "I'm the man what got slewed!"

☞An old lady who was not much accustomed to attend church, finally went one Sunday. During prayer time, while the she old was on her knees, her old cat which had followed her unnoticed, came purring around her, when she broke out—"Why, pussy—did you come ter meetin tu!—Why-e-e! I spoke out in meetin'! Why-e-e-e! I spoke agin! Why-e-e loddy-goddy! I keep a spokin all the time!"

☞The Montgomery Mail learns that Mr. Slaughter, whose name has become familiar to the public as the recipient of Mr. Yancey's "Scarlet Letter," committed suicide on Thursday last. The particulars are not known.

Republican Arguments.

The Republican leaders of this county, finding that they cannot arouse their forces by appealing to their reason, are endeavoring to excite their prejudices and to inspire them with a hope of success, by embittering the campaign and getting up a mechanical excitement with all sorts of fantastic and foolish contrivances. We had hoped that in a canvass which involves to a great extent the destiny of the Republic, and in which every citizen has, perhaps, his all at stake, the people would be suffered to decide the issues before them with a sober and deliberate judgment, and that no effort would be made to embitter and intensify party feeling. In this we have been disappointed. The Black Republican politicians, hungry for office, are determined to resort to every low device and [illegible] for principle—what care they for country—so that their greedy maws obtain satisfaction. We appeal to the honest, upright, thinking masses of their party, how can they approve of such drunken revelry, such childish mummery as that witnessed on Tuesday night last? Let the sober sense of the people decide the political issues of the day. Let not the yelling of boys, or the raising of poles, or the masquerading of Black Republican "Belsnickles," frighten or delude the voters in whose hands is placed the weal, or the woe of this nation.

Extra Pay.

We understand that the Abolition organ, in this place, intends, in this week's issue, to reiterate the false and stale charge that W. P. Schell voted in favor of increasing the pay of members of the Legislature.

Mr. Schell opposed the increase of pay of members. See Senate Journal, 1858, page 669.

On the 14th April, 1858, Mr. Schell, offered the following resolution, viz: "That the committee of conference, on the part of the Senate on the appropriation bill, be requested to insist on striking out of said bill the clause which authorizes the payment of $200, in addition to the regular pay to the members of the Legislature which was voted down." See page 772.

During the session of 1859, Mr. Schell, also voted to reduce the pay of members of the Legislature. See Senate Journal, 1859, page 745.

We contradicted the charge in 1858 when first made—and we will in our next number give full extracts from the Senate Journal.

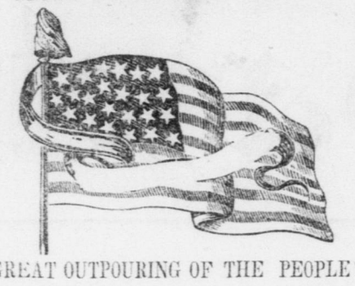
HON. JOHN SCOTT.

The nomination of the above named gentleman for the office of State Senator for the district composed of the counties of Bedford, Somerset and Huntingdon, was one eminently fit to be made. Mr. Scott stands at the head of the Huntingdon bar, is a man of excellent moral character, a fine speaker, a true Democrat and a gentleman in every sense of the word. Should he be elected, and it is not at all improbable that he will be, his constituents will find him a true and faithful representative. In Huntingdon county Mr. Scott is very popular and will beat Wharton by a handsome majority. Let the remainder of the District do its duty and John Scott will be our next Senator.

Doesn't Like the Bell Men.

Edward McPherson, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, in his speech at the Lincoln meeting on Tuesday night last, took occasion to refer in slighting terms to the friends and supporters of Mr. Bell. Perhaps the Bell men may refer to him in slighting terms on the second Tuesday of October.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY!



GREAT OUTPOURING OF THE PEOPLE!

UNION AND HARMONY THE WATCHWORD!

Delegations, Banners, Flags, Music and intense enthusiasm!

No Rail-splitters! No Union-splitters! No Negro Worshippers!

Monday evening last, was a gala time for the Democracy of Bedford county. The Mass Meeting advertised to be held on that evening, was a splendid demonstration, exceeding in point of numbers as well as in spirit and enthusiasm, anything of the kind ever witnessed in Bedford. The Court room was one living throng of men, and large numbers were compelled to stay outside for want of room. Before the organization of the meeting, large delegations of Democrats from Colerain, West Providence and other townships, came in to town with music and banners, and the "Douglas Club" of Cumberland Valley township, with Douglas flags floating in the breeze and amid the thunder of martial music and the shouts and cheers of the assembled crowd, made a triumphant entry just before night. Every thing was life, animation, and enthusiasm, reminding one of the glorious campaigns of days gone by. The blood of the Democracy is up. Our ranks are united and firm, ready to receive the shock of battle and to hurl back upon our foes the tide of the contest. All is well in Bedford county. Brave hearts and bold will bear the Democratic flag to victory.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers:

PRESIDENT, HON. JOB MANN.

VICE PRESIDENTS: Cornelius Devore, E. Statler, Col. F. D. Beegle, P. H. Studebaker, Wm. Iams, Col. L. A. May, John H. Barton, John Conrad, David Miller, Dr. C. F. Olleig, John W. Smith, Jos. Beegle, P. F. Lehman, Esq, W. T. Daugherty, Jacob C. Brumbaugh.

SECRETARIES: Jesse Conner, Simon Hershman, Jacob B. Anderson, Esq., Wm. P. Morgart, Jas. B. Farquhar, Samuel Burket, Richard Langdon, Wm. Keyser, Geo. W. Horn, Esq., Westley Akers, Henry Fluke.

On motion of G. H. Spang, Esq., Chairman of the Dem. Co. Committee, the following resolutions were then unanimously adopted:

Whereas, differences of opinion unfortunately existed in the Presidency, these differences tending to destroy harmony and efficiency, to produce disorganization with defeat, and to secure the triumph of the Black Republicans—a minority party in open hostility to every Democratic principle, and the tendency of whose doctrines is to interfere with the rights of sovreign states and to promote disunion and destroy the republic—Whereas, the differences of opinion between democrats are not so irreconcilable as those between them and the Republican party, and it is, therefore, their duty to endeavor to harmonize, so as to secure the state from falling into the hands of a party every principle of which is repugnant to Democracy—Therefore,

Resolved, That upon the Presidential question we are willing to support any just and fair plan of union which may be adopted whereby the whole conservative vote of Pennsylvania may be cast for a common Electoral Ticket in opposition to the Republican candidates.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the platform of resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention at Reading on the first day of March last.

Resolved, That we deem it of the utmost importance to secure the election of Henry D. Foster, the regular Democratic nominee for Governor, as his election will indicate, unmistakably, to the country, that Pennsylvania is true to her instincts, and her attachment to the Union and the Constitution.

Resolved, That we will forego, for the time being, any difference of opinion among Democrats, upon national topics, for the sake of the Union, and that we will use our efforts and undivided energies to promote the election of Henry D. Foster, as Governor of our good old Democratic Commonwealth.

Resolved, That for the same great cause, and in order to secure the well-deserved supremacy of the Democratic party in our legislative and local contests, that we will continue to adhere to regular Democratic usage, and will support the nominees of our local conventions, irrespective of their preferences for Presidential candidates.

Resolved, That we recommend to the Democratic Congressional Conferees of this District the name of Hon. W. P. Schell, as a suitable candidate for Congress, and pledge to him, if nominated, our hearty and undivided support.

Speeches were then made by DR. J. E. McGIRR, B. F. MEYERS, O. E. SHANNON, Esq., and Hon. JOHN CESSNA, the speakers being frequently interrupted with rounds of applause. After Mr. Cessna had concluded, the meeting adjourned with loud and prolonged cheering for the whole Democratic ticket.

Another Definition for Fr. Jordan.

Good Taste—a quality singularly exhibited by the Honorable Francis Jordan, in a recent speech in Fulton county, in which he traduced and vilified his friend and co-Director of the Bedford Railroad, Hon. W P. Schell.

A sensible remark.

A Republican friend of ours remarked the other day, when the Lincoln flag was raised up street, that more horses would be frightened by that flag than voters. Said he, "Poles can't vote."

REPUBLICAN POW-WOW.

"A great cry—and" all "wool."
"Sound and fury, signifying nothing."

For two weeks previous to our court, the adherents of the Rail and Union-splitter, had been busily engaged in making preparations to have a grand demonstration in this place on Tuesday evening. To hear them talk, the mountains were to sink and the valleys rise, the earth was to quake and the heavens to rock, with the upheaval of the Rail and Union Splitters. Well, the long-looked for day arrived. About noon a couple of scraggy saplings were hauled into town and the colored population was at once excited with a most intense enthusiasm. Directly we noticed a hack driving down town with a venerable old darkey in the boot, and some one in the inside calling out in thick tones, "Ere comes Hold Habe Lincollen!" Then some of the Bedford youngsters went out with a flag and music to help fill up the delegations of boys that were coming in wagons from several townships. Next came the said delegations, entering town amid the cheering of the boys and the colored population, all of them looking very demure and solemn, and a glee club singing what we took to be Ossawatamie Brown's funeral anthem. Next Black Lew and his friends raised the scraggy poles, whereupon four Republicans went off, declaring that such a humbug was too much for them and that they would hereafter support the Democratic ticket. Night came on, and the "Belsnickles" made their appearance. Fiercely glared their lamps—heavy and solemn was their tread—bloody red were their helmets—like thunder was their snort and like distant thunder their mutterings. Their colored friends admired—Billy Cossler proposed three cheers for the friends of the black man—and the "Belsies" marched around town. Then came the speechifying. Like the time when WILMOT spoke—Wilmot, the great defeated—the trick of pretending that the meeting could not be held in the court room, was again performed. So the speeches were made in the public square. The speakers were Dr. Duffield, of McConnelsburg, Mr. Moore, of Philadelphia, Mr. McPherson and the Rev. Mr. Jordan. Dr. Duffield's was the speech of the evening. As the Dr. dealt in generalities, his speech is not worth criticising. Moore and McPherson both fizzled completely, the latter taking good care to pitch into the Bell and Everett men as he went along. But the Rev. Mr. Jordan—we give him this title because he affects so much piety in politics—the Rev. Mr. Jordan must not pass unnoticed. For unmitigated, rough-shod, bare-faced, bald-headed lying, Jordan can distance any man in the State. For instance, Mr. Jordan charged the Democrats with being in favor of polygamy. No decent white man would make such a charge as this, when it is a matter of history that Mr. FILLMORE appointed Brigham Young Governor [illegible] and sent troops to that Territory to put down the Mormon rebellion. Mr. Jordan also asserted that the Democrats squandered the public lands and opposed the Homestead Bill. Every body knows this to be false. John L. Dawson, one of the leading Democrats in this State, is the father and originator of the Homestead Bill. Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, is one of its ablest advocates. No public lands were ever given away to railroad companies, except by the Congress of 1856-7, of which Black Republican N. P. Banks was speaker, and in which the Democrats were in a minority. O. B. MATTESON, of New York, a Black Republican member of that Congress, was expelled for being bribed by Railroad companies to vote public lands to them. That same Congress also established our present low Tariff. But it is useless to follow the vagaries and falsities of Jordan, or to speak further of this Black Republican powwow. We only hope that such demonstrations may be more frequent, as the one in question has already strengthened, united and aroused the Democracy of the county.

The Bedford "Belsnickles."

A new secret organization has recently sprung up in our midst, calling itself the "Wide Awake Club." Externally it aims at oddity and fantastic display, decking itself out somewhat in the fashion of the boys in a Christmas masquerade. In fact we can compare it to nothing but a troop of "Belsnickles," or a dilapidated fire company. But no matter about externals. It has a secret object, and that is well divined to be to "resist the execution of the Fugitive Slave Law, to run off negro slaves on the underground railroad, and to assist future John Browns in their bloody work of making war upon the South. There is no doubt about this matter. The men who organize these clubs are leading Abolitionists, some of them in the pay of the British Anti-Slavery society. The members are not made acquainted with the work they will have to perform. They are simply made to believe that it is all for a little fun and display. The time may come when they will know better. The very blacks themselves know what it is for. At the procession on Tuesday night you could see them mingling in large numbers with these Wide Awakes, huzzaing for Lincoln and with grinning ivories and distended eyes, gazing in black satisfaction upon the scene. To what a pass have not political matters come, when such hideous, monstrous, treasonable, diabolical purposes enter into the hearts of men! God forbid that the people should be deluded into countenancing such traitorous proceedings.

☞Franklin county has instructed her Congressional conferees for Hon. W. P. Schell, of this place, and passed resolutions endorsing the nomination of Douglas and Johnson.

☞Messrs. Ferguson and Shafer have dissolved partnership, and their business is continued by the firm of Ferguson and Line. Give them a call.

☞The Bell and Everett meeting on Wednesday evening last, was quite large and respectable. JOHN MOWER, ESQ., of this place presided, assisted by Messrs. W. F. Mann, John W. Beeler, John Lyon and Valentine V. Wertz, as Vice Presidents. Messrs. Wm. Hartley and Ross Anderson were appointed Secretaries, and Wm. Lyon, Esq., Mr. Haney, of Broad Top, and Wm. Showman, of Juniata tp., committee on resolutions. The meeting was addressed by Dr. Compher, Wm. Lyon, Esq., Mr. Haney and Wm. Hartley, Esq. The speech of Dr. Compher was eloquent and logical, striking now at the Democracy and then at Black Republicanism. Mr. Lyon made a long and powerful effort, abounding in capital hits, and using up the Black Republican creed most effectually. Among other things, he said that if the contest were narrowed down as between Lincoln and Douglas, he would not hesitate a moment to go for Douglas. Stephen A. Douglas, said Mr. Lyon, is a National man and in favor of protection to our home industry.—At the conclusion of Mr. Lyon's speech, the junior member of the firm of Jordan & Co., had the temerity to ask him who he was for, for State and District officers. Mr. Lyon promptly answered that he was opposed to Abraham Lincoln, because he was the nominee of a sectional party, and because he was not in favor of a protective tariff. He was opposed to ANDREW G. CURTIN, because Andrew G. Curtin was in favor of Lincoln. He would vote for W. P. SCHELL, because he knew the man. These answers were followed by a perfect storm of applause. Poor DAVY sat down entirely discomfited.—In the earlier part of the evening, a Bell and Everett balloon was sent up, presenting a beautiful appearance. A delegation also came in from the Springs, with bells jingling and banners waving. The Black Republicans have got the blues ever since this meeting and talk seriously of taking down their flag.

Senatorial Conference.

The Democratic Senatorial Conferees met at the Hotel of Col. John Hafer, in Bedford, on Monday, 3d Sept., 1860, and organized by electing Hon. W. T. DAUGHERTY, of Bedford, President, and J. O. Kimmel, of Somerset, Secretary.

James Patton, W. T. Daugherty and Wm. M. Pearson, appeared as conferees from Bedford.

Col. R. F. Haslett, Wm. Lewis and R. Milton Speer, from Huntingdon.

J. O. Kimmel, S. S. Platt and Josiah H. Zimmerman, from Somerset.

Mr. Patton, of Bedford, nominated William J. Baer, of Somerset, whereupon Mr. Kimmel, of Somerset, read a dispatch from Mr. Baer, declining to be a candidate. Mr. Kimmell then made a motion that John Scott, of Huntingdon, be nominated by acclamation; which motion being seconded by Mr. Pearson, was unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Lewis, Resolved, That we are proud of our nominee for Senator; that his integrity and ability command our highest admiration; and that we pledge ourselves to give him a united and energetic support.

On motion, adjourned.

J. O. KIMMEL, Sec'y. } W. T. DAUGHERTY, Pres't.

Gen. Foster.

Even the more honest portion of the Opposition press, cannot refrain from complimenting our gallant standard bearer. Such sentiments as the opposition are sometimes forced, by sheer candor, to enunciate in regard to Gen. Foster, are worth a dozen campaign documents; and show conclusively that there is nothing in the man, his character, or his record, which they can attack. And the contrast between their own unpopular leader, and the former, is so marked, that they cannot disguise the fact to their own minds that Foster must be the "coming man." Here is what one Republican editor says of him:

"He is one of the most amiable, genial, kind-hearted and unpretending of men; and withal an honorable gentleman in the noblest sense of the word. Although a fine lawyer, of subtle intellect, and persuasive speech, he is modest and unambitious to a fault. He has not an enemy in the world, and his friends adore him. We know steadfast Republicans who cherish for "Harry Foster" a personal friendship as strong as any of his Democratic adherents."

And here is another of the same sort, and rather "pugilistic," in its bearings, from the editor of the Centre Democrat, a strong Republican paper:

"We are sorry we are placed in a hostile position toward Gen. Foster, for we like him very much, and come what may, no word of abuse shall escape our lips when speaking of him, nor will we stand by and hear him traduced by any one. The man who maligns him in our presence, will be told he is mistaken; if he repeats his abuse, he will be told that he is a liar; and if he reiterates a third time what we know to be false, we will smash his teeth down his throat."

Poles Can't Vote.

The recent manœuvres of the Black Republicans have fired the blood of the Democrats, and some of our young friends talk about raising a larger pole than the Lincoln-stick up street. We would advise the young Democracy of Bedford and vicinity, to let the Opposition spend their time in raising poles, if they will. Poles can't vote—can't reason—can't convert sensible people.—Let the young Democrats go to work like men and gentlemen and reason with their fellow citizens—appeal to their better nature—their judgment—their love of country—their sense of justice and honor—and they can do more good than they would by raising forty poles.

☞We lack the space, this week, to publish the article from the Pennsylvanian handed us by our friend, Captain Reed. We will endeavor to do so in our next.

Takes down Lincoln and runs up Douglas.

The Chambersburg Times, heretofore a strong Lincoln journal, has taken down the Lincoln flag and runs up that of Douglas. This is "a sign of the Times." Messrs. Frey and Foltz retire and are succeeded in the editorship of the paper, by Messrs. Sellers and Kennedy.—The Times is a neat and spirited paper and will do good service in the cause.

☞Among our visitors during Court, were Wm. Lewis, Esq., editor of the Huntingdon Globe, R. Milton Speer, Esq., editor of the Huntingdon Union, R. Bruce Petriken, Esq., of the Huntingdon Bar, and J. O. Kimmell, Esq., of the Somerset Bar, and Maj. Jacob Cresswell, of Huntingdon co. They are all clever fellows and belong to the great Democratic party of the country.

☞Among our Republican friends visiting Bedford during Court, were Gen. W. H. Koontz, candidate for Prothonotary of Somerset county, and E. M. Shrock, candidate for the Legislature, from the same county.

☞We had the pleasure one night last week, of a fine Serenade from Johnson's Band, Prof. J. C. ANDERSON, leader. This band was engaged by the Springs company during the late season, and is well known for the excellence of its performers.

☞The elections in Vermont and Maine, will come off in a few days. Both these States have always been intensely black republican, and, no doubt will be so again. The Democracy look elsewhere for their victories.

☞The Campmeeting for Bedford Circuit, will commence this day, (Friday) 4 miles from Bloody Run. There will be from thirty to forty tents. Rev. Geo. Guyer, P. E., Rev. S. L. M. Conser, of Huntingdon, Rev. E. B. Snider, of Hollidaysburg, Rev. T. Barnhart, of Williamsburg, and five or six other excellent Ministers will be present.

Douglas stock is on the rise every where. In Virginia, Gov. LETCHER and Hon. JOHN S. MILLSON, who was last winter the candidate of the Democrats against Sherman for Speaker of the National House of Representatives, have both come out boldly and unequivocally for the Little Giant.

DOUGLAS COMING!

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, the nominee of the National Democracy for President of the United States, will arrive here on Friday, at noon, and address the people in the evening.

We make the announcement with pleasure. The people of Dauphin and the adjoining counties will now have an opportunity of seeing and hearing the greatest living statesman of the country, the fearless expounder of Democratic principles and defender of popular rights. Let all the Douglas Clubs who can conveniently reach Harrisburg by railroad be on hand, and let the people, without distinction of party, who are interested in the important questions involved in the Presidential contest, flock in and hear the voice and the wisdom of that "Little Giant," who wears the same face North and South, and wars equally against the Abolitionists of the one section and the Disunionists of the other.—State Sentinel.

LEGISLATIVE CONFERENCE.

The Conferees representing the Legislative district composed of the counties of Bedford and Somerset, met at Bedford, on Tuesday last and passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the conferees of each county in this Representative District, meet separately and nominate their candidates for members of the House of Representatives, and that we hereby recommend the nominations so to be made to the support of the Democracy of the District.

The Legislative Conferees for Bedford county, will meet at the office of W. P. Schell, Esq., on Monday next, Sept. 10th, for the purpose of naming a candidate for the Legislature.

☞A large and enthusiastic meeting of the DOUGLAS and FOSTER CLUB, was held in the Court House, on Saturday evening last.—Speeches were made by Messrs. Dickerson, Cessna and Meyers. On motion, it was

Resolved, That this Club form itself into a Vigilance Committee for the purpose of carrying on the campaign, and that all Democrats and all other conservative men be invited to participate in our proceedings, and that this Club hereafter meet once every week."

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Saturday evening, Sep. 16th.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

There will be a grand mass meeting of the Democracy of Union township, at the town of Lewisville, on Friday, Sept. 14th. A number of speakers will be present to address the meeting.

☞The Sentinel folks are already attacking Hon. W. P. Schell, in anticipation of his nomination for Congress by the Democratic Conference of this district. They know McPherson will have a swift nag to run against, and hence the early start they make to jockey him. But the thing can't be done. McPherson will be beaten—and Schell is the man who will do it. Mark that.—Gettysburg Compiler.

Persons afflicted with the Fever and Ague should not spare either time, trouble or expense, to procure DR. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS, whose beneficent effects upon the human system has been clearly proved to those who have been stricken down in a short space of time by this dreaded curse, whose cheeks are wan and meagre, and whose nights are sleepless and restless, and whose eyes are dim and sunken, with death staring them in the face, this compound must prove a blessing: snatching them as it were from the very mouth of the grave.—None can know its true value until they have tested it. When all others have failed, these Bitters have restored the sufferers to pristine health. Their popularity in all the Western and Southern parts should introduce them to [illegible] families.

ONE PERSON for the office of Auditor for said county.

The election to be opened between the hours of 7 and 8 o'clock in the forenoon by public proclamation, and to keep open till 7 o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

Notice is Hereby Given,

That every person excepting Justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer, agent who is or shall be employed under the legislature, executive or Judiciary department of this State or of any city, or of any incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or Commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the time, the office or appointment of Judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of assembly entitled "an act relating to elections of this Commonwealth," passed July 5d, 1819, further provides as follows, to wit:

"That the inspectors and judges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district at which they respectively belong, before 8 o'clock in the morning of the 2d Tuesday of October, and each said inspector shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

"In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election, shall act act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who has received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place, and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; and if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election the qualified voters for the township, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at the election, shall elect one of their number to fill such a vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election during the whole time such election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors, and judge, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, and on such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters, as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty one or more, who shall have resided in this state at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote ten days, immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the the election district and paid taxes, aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid tax.

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless: First, he produce a receipt of payment, within two years of State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence on his own oath or affirmation of another that he has paid such a tax, or in a failure to produce a receipt shall make oath to the payment thereof, or second, if he claim a right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years shall depose on oath or affirmation, that he has resided in the State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe, from the account given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act, whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age" if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of age, and in either case the reason of such a vote shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make a like note in the lists of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the commissioners, and assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such persons on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector that he has resided within the district for more than ten days immediately preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona-fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove in the district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified as a foresaid, and who shall make due proof if required, of his residence and payment of taxes, as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election under this act, from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, and shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, shall block or attempt to block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holden or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidation, threats, force or violence, with the design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and be imprisoned for any time not less than nor more than twelve months and it shall be shown in the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district, or township where said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within the Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount they bet or offered to bet.

And the Judges of the respective districts aforesaid, are required to meet at Bedford, on Friday next following the holding of said election, then and there to perform those things required of them by law.

Given under my hand, at my office in Bedford, this 31st day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eighthundred and sixty, and the eighty-fifth of the Independence of the United States.

WM. S. FLUKE, Sheriff.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC PREPARATION of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon, by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innoxious in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Missenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaint, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fever, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of Iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and over-heating; and gently regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases.

In unchecked Diarrhœa, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating and apparently malignant, the effects have been equall decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory, in the latter, however, more decidedly, it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered, in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt happy and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address, on receipt of the price.

All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

IT is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

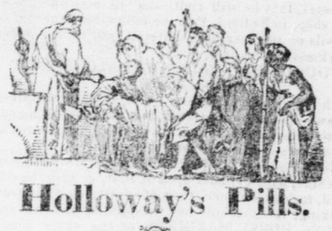
For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

For sale by H. C. Reame in Bedford, and other druggists throughout the country.

HEALTH AND ITS PLEASURES OR DISEASE WISH ITS AGONIES: CHOOSE BETWEEN THEM!



Holloway's Pills.

Nervous Disorders.

What is more fearful than a breaking down of the nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in a small degree is most distressing, for where can a remedy be found? There is one:—drink but little wine, beer, or spirits, or far better none; take no coffee—weak tea being preferable; get all the fresh air you can; take three or four Pills every night; eat plenty of solids, avoiding the use of slops; and if these golden rules are followed, you will be happy in mind and strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

Mothers and Daughters,

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are so famous it is their purifying properties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and suspended secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, they never fail, never we speak the system, and always bring about what is required.

Sick Headaches and Want of Appetite,

These feelings which so sadden us, most frequently arise from annoyances or trouble, from obstructed perspiration, or from eating and drinking what is unfit for us, thus disordering the liver and stomach. These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well. The Pills, if taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action to both liver and stomach, whence follow as a natural consequence, a good appetite and a clear head. In the East and West Indies scarcely any other medicine is ever used for these disorders.

Dsorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they, crete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs Out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone do the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acility, occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasms—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and Stomach.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedy known in the world for the following diseases.

Ague,	Inflammation,
Asthma	Jaundice,
Bilious Complaints,	Liver Complaints,
Blotches on the Skin	Lumbago,
Bowel Complaints,	Piles,
Colics,	Rheumatism,
Constipation of the Bowels,	Retention of Urine,
Consumption,	Scrofula or King's Evil,

Indigestion,

☞CAUTION!—None genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, NEW YORK AND LONDON," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 et. and $1 each.

☞There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

The mill is a large frame with two overshot wheels and four run of stone; in good order, and in a good settlement, with a sufficient supply of water. The farm contains nearly 400 acres; about 100 alluvial soil, and cleared; and the balance well timbered. The improvements are a large brick house, tenant house, miller's house, barn, distillery, &c. The farm can be divided without disadvantage. Terms reasonable.

—ALSO—

A tract of land in St. Clair tp., containing 93 acres, or thereabouts, about 55 acres cleared, with a two story log dwelling house, tenant-house and two log stables thereon erected; also, an apple orchard thereon, adjoining lands of Wm. Keefe, Jacob Semler and others; formerly the property of George Kimberlin.

—ALSO—

a Farm of 166 acres, about 100 cleared, with Double Log House, New Bank Barn, and two good orchards thereon, lying on the Juniata River, two miles from Stonerstown, and half a mile from the rail road. This farm is composed of a good quality of river bottom land, 30 or 40 acres of which can be put into good meadow. The whole is now in a good state of cultivation.

—ALSO—

A farm of 118 acres of limestone land in Liberty Township near Stonerstown, known as the "John Stofer property," adjoining lands of 'Squire Keusinger, Stofer and others. The improvements are a Log House, Log Barn &c. There is good water on the premises, also an orchard of good fruit.

—ALSO—

A new two-story Rough-cast House and two lots of ground in Broadtop city.

—ALSO—

160 acres of the best quality of land in Harrison county, Iowa near the Missouri, and close to the county seat.

—ALSO—

BEDFORD MACHINE SHOP!

THE subscriber would most respectfully announce to the farming community, and public in general, that he still continues to manufacture at his shop, in Bedford, Pa., the following farming utensils of the very best material, and in the most workmanlike manner, viz:

FOUR AND SIX HORSE TUMBLING SHAFT POWER MACHINES, with large open cylinders, six staves, and spikes screwed in, and improved Straw Shakers attached. Their superiors for strength and speed are not made in this or any other County in the State.

Four Horse Tumbling Shaft and Strap Power Machine, with cylinder open or shut, as may be desired, for convenience, ease of draft, and perfect working, this machine has no superior any where. THREE HORSE MACHINES, of the same kind. Two and three Horse Tumbling Shaft Power Machines, a very convenient and excellent machine for small farmers, with or without shakers, single and double shovel Ploughs, Horse Rakes, Lever Cutting Boxes, Harrows and Wheelbarrows, made to order.

All the above articles constantly on hand, and sold on reasonable terms.

Repairing of all kinds of Machines, whether made here or elsewhere, done on the shortest notice.

Castings for all my machines, made at the Foundry of Shires & Jordan, in Bedford, and will compare with any made in the State for strength and durability. Blacksmithing done to order. All my work warranted to give satisfaction.

From a past experience of over twenty years in the Machine business, I feel confident that I can give entire satisfaction to all who may favor me with a call. Call and examine my work before you purchase elsewhere, as I am determined to please all.

Horses, grain of all kinds, lumber and iron, will be taken in exchange for work.

BEDFORD CLASSICAL INSTITUTE.

REV. JOHN LYON, T. LYTTLETON LYON, A. M., } PRINCIPALS.

THE Summer session of this institution will open on Friday, the 4th day of May 1860.

It is the design of the Principals, to make this Academy, in all respects, a first class Institution, for the thorough instruction of youth of both sexes, and to prepare them for any profession or position in life.

The high moral and scientific tone of the school is well known to this community, and a strict discipline will be enforced.

A few boys, (the number is limited to ten,) will be received into the family of the Principals, as boarders.

The beauty of the scenery and the salubrity of the climate render Bedford a most desirable location for such a school.

Persons from abroad, visiting at the Springs, can be near their children during the summer.

It is desirable that pupils should enter at the commencement of the session, and no pupil will be received for less than one quarter.

MANHOOD. HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just Published, in a sealed Envelope,

On the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, Nervousness and involuntary Emissions, Impotency and Mental and Physical Incapacity.

BY ROB. J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of "The Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of self-abuse may be effectually removed without Medicine and without dangerous Surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings or cordials; pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically. This Lecture will prove a boon to thousands and thousands.

Sent under seal to any address, post paid, on the receipt of two po-tage stamps, by addressing Dr. CH. J. C. KLINE, M. D., 189 first Avenue, New York Post Box 4586.

BEDFORD COUNTY MAP.

I Will make a directory map of Bedford County from actual surveys, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be raised to justify me in the enterprise.

The map will be large and well finished and will show the location of all the public roads streams, boundary lines, towns, villages, Hotels, Churches, School Houses, Post Offices, stores, grist mills, saw mills &c., &c., and will contain the names of all the property holders, and show the busines that almost each one is engaged in. I will put on the same sheet maps of all the towns and large villages, also tables and statistics of the County and (if taken in time) the census of 1860. Pains will be taken to make it as reliable as any Map in the State.
